

ALIX ZIMMERMANN

MEET YOUR AUCTIONEER

Alix loves doing her part to bring a little sunshine and cheer with her everywhere she goes. Originally from New York, this no-nonsense extrovert has a special knack for making new connections feel like old cherished friends. Alix takes great pride in her decade-long involvement with the Rose City Rollers, a local non-profit focused on empowerment through sport and inclusion. This quick-witted firecracker gets a thrill from meeting and working with a wide range of inspiring do-gooders in her adopted city. Always leading with authenticity and integrity, Alix is passionate about matters pertaining to social justice, equity, inclusivity, and empowerment for all living things who need the extra help in being heard.
